FROM THE PRESIDENTS PEN.

The presentation by Col Haig of the Rotary Club of Maningham has motivated members who have already done so to register for an exciting 2011 District Conference in Adelaide. It is great to see the Conference Committee taking a fresh approach to different aspects of the Conference. If any member wishes to set up a stand promoting any one of our project please let me know. Once again, thanks again to Ashleigh and Marlene for their marvellous hospitality.

At the recent board meeting, the payment of travelling costs for the Wesley students to MUNA in Canberra and of our share for Byron Tabet to attend the National Youth Science Forum were approved. Seed capital for the Monash Market and marketing for the photography course were also discussed. The Market Committee will advise the club once the figures for seed capital have been finalised.

Next week, David Norman from Melbourne Water is our guest speaker.

GORDON'S MEETING REPORT -

Hello everyone.

I am writing this report on Monday night and I have just four more days of work with Westpac!

This time next week will seem rather strange after nearly 39 years with the Bank.

I am sure the feeling won't last too long.

At least I will be able to get my report to Bulletin Editor, Les much earlier.

EVERY WEDNESDAY

Last meeting saw us back at Oaktree Hill Retirement Village for a very pleasant breakfast in congenial surroundings. This is becoming a habit, but thanks must go again to Managers, Ashleigh and Marlene for their hospitality.

The speaker for the meeting was Col Haigh from the Rotary Club of Manningham (Col, like John Hocking, and soon to be me, is an ex Westpac staff member).

Manningham is organizing the next District Conference and Col was along to provide some details and entice as many members as possible to attend.

The venue for the conference, which is to be held on 7th – 9th April 2011, is the Adelaide Convention Centre. The theme for the conference is “Leadership in Challenging Times”.

There will be some great speakers, including Simon Bryant, co-star of the ABC program “The Cook and the Chef”.

A change from previous years is that the accommodation is each club or member's own responsibility, which I think is preferable to the (dis)organization of some previous years.

Col's presentation should have whet your appetite to attending. A number of members are already down to attend.

If you have not yet decided, then don't delay, book now.

I may not see you next meeting – too much to finalise at work (and a few luncheons).

See you then, at our 8th September meeting.

Free at last!

Gordon Pyke

Les has prepared an allocation of duties until 10th Nov 2010 He says it is a sophisticated piece of design (!) that ensures that:

- no-one is on two weeks in a row,
- each time you are on, you are on with a different set of people.

He thought you'd be impressed! Now if only we had 10 more members, our turns would come round less often...

As always if you are unable to fulfill your task please make arrangements for someone else on the list to stand in for you – and remember to pay back your “debt”!
